Miss Masters has a melodious voice of much sweetness and depth, and her singing of lieder from Grieg, Brahms and Bohm, with a group of modern songs, won cordial applause from a goodly audience. Miss Lockett, whose voice is of the lyric type, was heard in the scene and gavotte from "Manon," by Massanet, and Elizabeth's prayer, from "Tannhauser," with also a group of modern songs. The work of both singers was marked by careful and sympathetic interpretation that made for pleasing results, even though at times affected by nervousness incident to a stage performance. But both have times affected by nervousness incident to a stage performance. But both have beautiful, well trained voices that give much promise for the future. Miss El-sie Kernan assisted with several reci-tations that won applause.

Resinol cured awful itching in one night

New York.—"The skin on my hand got red and rough. It itched and I begen to scratch it. It itched so that sometimes I could not sleep all night. I was suffering very much. I used salve and but they did not seem to help me. This went on for six or seven months. Then I tried Resinol Ointment and Resinol Soap. I used them one night. In the morning, to my surprise, my hand was all well, and the trouble has never returned. This is the absolute truth."—(Signed) Miss Celia Kleinman, 61 Columbia street, April 26.
